

New Town City Patron Behavior Policy

The Mission of the New Town City Library is to provide the community with a broad range of information, resources, programs, services, and to encourage the free range of ideas.

In order to promote such an environment, we ask that you please observe the rules. Failure to adhere to the rules may result in your removal from the New Town City Library.

1. Do not interfere with library services or other visitor's use of the library.
2. Please use headphones or earbuds when appropriate.
3. Food and beverages are prohibited at all computers.
4. Polite cellphone use is permitted.
5. Improper use of the restrooms is prohibited.
6. Smoking of any kind, vaping, or chewing tobacco is prohibited.
7. Any use of illicit drugs, alcohol, or intoxicated behaviors are prohibited.
8. Firearms are prohibited.
9. Solicitation, loitering, and posing of handbills is prohibited.

The librarian has reserved the right to refuse service to anyone. All patrons have the right to be heard before the library board at the scheduled meeting times. Please contact Julie Herbel at 701-627-4846 to be put on the schedule.
